Nicaragua reaffirms that it is unacceptable for Colonialists to attempt to impose their hegemony

The Special Representative of the President for the Russian Federation, Compañero Laureano Ortega Murillo, participated in the forum on modern practices of Neocolonialism, organized by the United Russia Party, informed Vice President Compañera Rosario Murillo.

"This morning, also at 6 o'clock in the morning, we participated with political parties from a number of countries in Africa, Asia, Europe and Latin America, in the forum to condemn modern practices of neocolonialism. The Forum was convened by the United Russia Party and was chaired by comrade Dimitriy Medvedev, who is the Vice President of the Security Council of the Russian Federation and has also been President and Prime Minister of that great country", explained the Vice-president.

"Algeria, Brazil, China, Cuba, the African National Congress (ANC), Indonesia, Laos, Lebanon, Mozambique, Myanmar, Nicaragua, Pakistan, Russia, Zimbabwe, Syria and Venezuela, through their parties and movements participated in these discussions where we all agreed on the need to strengthen the unity between our countries as we go forward fighting against the new neo-colonialist practices, fighting to reduce inequalities, fighting and rejecting the manipulation of the international political, financial and communicational mechanisms that threaten the sovereignty of our peoples, fighting to achieve the elimination of the hegemony of the dollar as [the world's] foreign reserve currency and to advance in the construction of a multipolar world of dialogue and peace, fraternity, justice and solidarity", added Compañera [Rosario].

The House of Sovereignty participated in the VI International Seminar “Latin America and the Caribbean and China”

Members of the Casa de la Soberanía participated in the VI International Seminar "Latin America and the Caribbean, and China: Conditions and Challenges in the 21st Century" from 29 - 31 May online, in which 110 papers were presented in four thematic areas, in addition to six keynote speeches.

The four themes covered were: economy, trade and investment; political and international relations; natural resources and environment, and; history, culture and Chinese language learning.

The seminar was organized by the Latin American and Caribbean Academic Network on China. During the opening remarks the general coordinator of the Network, Dr. Enrique Dussel Peters, expressed:

"China's presence globally and in Latin America and the Caribbean (LAC) is undeniable in any socio-economic area and in all countries of the region, even in those with which China does not have diplomatic relations. The launch of the Belt and Road Initiative in 2013, as well as the growing number of Confucius Institutes in the region have also increased cooperation in every conceivable field between LAC and China. Both LAC and China have been establishing public, private and academic initiatives, albeit with difficulties, for a reciprocal understanding; particularly significant is the growing educational and academic exchange between young people and new generations of students."

The dialogue exchange seeks to learn more about relations between Latin America and the Caribbean, and China, in terms of bilateral and multilateral policies, natural resources and the environment, as well as the analysis of culture, history and Chinese language learning.
