General Zeledón's legacy, theme of the 5th meeting of the Permanent Forum on Sovereignty and Peace

With the participation of national and international partners, teachers and students, the Casa de la Soberanía Miguel d'Escoto Brockmann, organized this Tuesday, 18 July, a conference "From the Knox Note to the Heroic Exploits of Benjamin Zeledón in Defense of Nation's Sovereignty", delivered by Dr. Edgard Palazio Galo, executive of the Directorate for University Outreach and professor of the Department of Social and Political Sciences at the UNAN-Managua.

The activity, framed within the 44th anniversary of the triumph of the Sandinista Popular Revolution, is part of the Permanent Forum for the Defense of Sovereignty and Peace, coordinated by the House of Sovereignty for the purpose of promoting dialogue, the free debate of ideas and critical thinking that contribute towards a deeper understanding of contemporary socio-cultural, political and economic dynamics.

During this fifth encounter of the Forum, Dr. Palazio referred to the struggle of General Benjamín Zeledon, especially the period 1909-1912, which was not exempt from attempts at imperialist domination to usurp our national sovereignty. Regarding 1912, Palazio emphasized the U.S. military occupation and the uprising which General Zeledon participated in until 4 October, when he was killed in combat during the Battle of Coyotepe.

The academic also emphasized "since 4 September, when Luis Mena laid down his arms and shamefully surrendered, General Benjamín Zeledon took up the fight". Likewise, he points out that for the first time in our national history a different social and political discourse emerged in which the meaning and philosophy of "homeland" and "defense of our sovereignty" prevailed, consistent with the deeds of General Zeledon.
